Renovations are exciting right up until the contractors leave and you see the dust. Fine particles from sanding, drywall and floor refinishing settle on every surface in the house, including rooms nobody worked in. Post renovation house cleaning in Roanoke helps you actually eco-friendly house cleaning enjoy your new kitchen, refinished floors or freshly painted rooms. The Happy Housekeepers has been doing this kind of work across the Roanoke Valley since 1979.

Customer reviews on the company website mention exactly these situations, including cleaning after floor refinishing and after painting. Those jobs leave behind dust and residue that ordinary tidying cannot handle. Dust from sanded floors, for instance, drifts into closets, coats window sills and sits on top of door frames and ceiling fans.

The company also offers builder and contractor cleaning, so its crews are familiar with the extra work that follows construction. For a homeowner, that experience translates into a thorough clean that reaches the places renovation dust hides. Blinds, baseboards, window sills and ceiling fans are dusted, furniture dusted or polished, carpets vacuumed and hard floors mopped.

Kitchens and bathrooms need special care after a remodel. New counters, cabinets and fixtures are often coated in fine dust or adhesive haze, and the room needs a complete clean-up before it is ready to use. Specialized services such as washing walls and woodwork and cleaning light fixtures help remove the dust that settles on newly painted trim and freshly installed lighting.

Timing is important. It is best to schedule a post-renovation clean once the contractors are fully done, so new dust is not created after the crew leaves. Many homeowners book the clean for the day after final touch-ups, giving them a fresh home before furniture goes back into place.

The Happy Housekeepers is licensed, bonded and insured, staff are bonded and insured by the company and the business holds a BBB blue seal. Estimates are free with no obligation, so you can understand the scope of the clean before you book it.

If you like the results, it is easy to continue with weekly, bi-weekly or monthly house cleaning to protect your investment in those new floors and finishes.

FAQ About House Cleaning Roanoke

How much does house cleaning cost in Roanoke, VA?

The cost depends on the size of your home, the number of bathrooms, how often you book and whether you add specialized tasks like oven or basement cleaning. The Happy Housekeepers gives every Roanoke customer a free, no-obligation estimate based on the actual home rather than a flat online price. Call (540) 774-4299 to get yours.

What is included in a standard house cleaning visit?

A standard visit from The Happy Housekeepers includes dusting or polishing furniture, vacuuming carpets, mopping hard surface floors and a complete kitchen and total bathroom clean-up. Window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans are dusted, waste baskets are emptied and cobwebs are removed where needed.

Do I need to be home during the house cleaning?

No. Employees of The Happy Housekeepers are bonded and insured by the company, so customers across Roanoke, Salem and Cave Spring do not need to be present. Entry details and any special instructions can be arranged with the office ahead of time.

How often should I schedule house cleaning?

Busy families and homes with pets often choose weekly or bi-weekly visits, while smaller households do well with monthly service. The Happy Housekeepers offers one-time, weekly, bi-weekly and monthly plans, and its residential page also mentions semi-weekly, daily and custom schedules.

Is The Happy Housekeepers licensed, bonded and insured?

Yes. The company is licensed, bonded and insured, and it displays a Better Business Bureau blue seal with a BBB profile filed under house cleaning in Roanoke. It has served the Roanoke Valley since 1979.

What is the difference between a standard clean and a deep clean?

A standard clean keeps the home in good shape, while a deep clean adds tasks that build up over months. The Happy Housekeepers offers spring and fall cleanings plus specialized work such as cleaning oven and refrigerator interiors, washing walls and woodwork, cleaning light fixtures and cleaning basements.

Do you offer move-in and move-out house cleaning in Roanoke?

Yes. Move-in and move-out cleanings are part of the company's regular services for renters, buyers and sellers in Roanoke and Roanoke County. Empty rooms allow the crew to reach every baseboard, cabinet and closet, and appliance interiors can be added.

What areas does The Happy Housekeepers serve?

The office is at 5145 Starkey Rd in the Cave Spring area of southwest Roanoke County. The team serves the City of Roanoke, Cave Spring, Salem, Vinton, Hollins and the wider Roanoke County area.

How long has The Happy Housekeepers been in business?

The company was founded in 1979 by Mary Jane Wszolek, who began providing professional cleaning across the Roanoke Valley with a focus on homes. It is still a locally owned family company and describes her hard-working, reliable and honest approach as its standard today.

What payment methods do you accept?

The Happy Housekeepers accepts Visa, Mastercard, American Express and Discover. That makes it easy for customers who are at work during the visit, or for family members arranging house cleaning for a parent in Roanoke, to pay without being on site.

What happens after my first house cleaning?

After the first cleaning, the office follows up by phone to make sure you are satisfied. Any changes you would like are noted for future visits, and associates are available by phone at (540) 774-4299 or by email whenever questions come up.

Do you clean after renovations or new construction?

Yes. The company offers builder and contractor clean-ups, and customer reviews mention cleaning after floor refinishing and painting. Fine construction dust is removed from floors, sills, baseboards, blinds and fixtures so Roanoke homeowners can enjoy the finished project.
