Send every operator the same outward and return itinerary. Include waiting time, luggage coach hire in London and any extra stops. Ask what the quoted price includes and how a change in passenger numbers would affect it. Keep those answers beside the prices so the organiser can explain the choice to the group before collecting payments.