This thorough guide details the prerequisites, the detailed procedure, associated costs, and essential tips for success.

1. Prerequisites and Eligibility

Before enrolling in a driving school, applicants must satisfy specific legal and administrative requirements set by Polish authorities.

- Age Requirements: The minimum age depends upon the vehicle classification (e.g., 18 for Category B cars and trucks, 24 for Category A motorbikes without prior experience).
- Residency Status: Applicants must be residents of Poland. This is normally proven by a PESEL number (Personal Identification Number) and a registration of home (zameldowanie), or evidence of remaining in Poland for a minimum of 185 days annually.
- Medical Fitness: Every candidate needs to pass a basic medical exam conducted by an authorized physician to ensure they are fit to drive.

2. Step-by-Step Guide to Getting a Polish Driver's License

The path from pedestrian to licensed chauffeur involves numerous unique milestones.

Step 1: Obtain a PKK Number (Profil Kandydata na Kierowcę)

The PKK is a distinct candidate profile number released by the local district workplace (Starostwo Powiatowe or city hall Urząd Miasta).

- What is needed: A finished application, a passport-style picture, a medical certificate, and an ID (passport or home card).

Action 2: Medical Examination

A licensed occupational health physician need to take a look at the candidate's eyesight, hearing, and basic health. The standard fee for this assessment is regulated by the state (presently 200 PLN).

Step 3: Complete State-Approved Training

Enroll in a state-approved driving school (Ośrodek Szkolenia Kierowców - OSK). For a basic Category B license, the course comprises:

- Theory: Minimum 30 hours covering traffic regulations, roadway signs, and fundamental first aid.
- Practical Driving: Minimum 30 hours behind the wheel with an instructor.

Note for Expats: While many driving schools conduct lessons in Polish, an increasing number of schools in significant cities like Warsaw, Kraków, and Wrocław offer theoretical courses and tests in English.

Step 4: Pass the State Exams

As soon as training is complete, prospects should reserve and pass two tests administered by the provincial road traffic center (Wojewódzki Ośrodek Ruchu Drogowego - WORD).

1. Theoretical Exam: A computer-based test featuring multiple-choice questions relating to traffic rules.
2. Practical Exam: Divided into two parts-- car checks and maneuvers on a closed course, followed by driving in real traffic conditions.

Step 5: Order the Physical License

After passing both tests, the WORD center updates the candidate's PKK profile. The prospect then returns to their local city hall or district office to pay the processing kupić prawo jazdy charge and officially request the physical card.
