How to Obtain a Hungarian Driving License: A Comprehensive Step-by-Step Guide

Acquiring a chauffeur's license in Hungary is a structured process that welcomes both EU/EEA residents and third-country nationals. Whether someone is a resident needing to commute, a digital nomad settling down in Budapest, or a student desiring the liberty to explore the countryside, having a Hungarian driving license opens up numerous possibilities.

Navigating the regional administration can at first appear overwhelming, specifically with language barriers. However, the course to getting behind the wheel in Hungary is simple when broken down into manageable steps. This detailed guide lays out everything required to effectively get a Hungarian driving license (Category B for vehicles).

Requirements: Who Can Apply?

Before starting the procedure, candidates must satisfy particular legal and residency requirements set by the Hungarian government.

- Residency: Applicants need to have a legitimate Hungarian address card (lakcímkártya) showing they have actually been residents in Hungary for a minimum of 185 days.
- Age: The minimum age for a Category B (cars and truck) driving license in Hungary is 17 years of ages.
- Medical Fitness: Every applicant needs to pass a basic medical exam to show physical and psychological physical fitness for driving.

Step-by-Step Guide to Getting a Hungarian Driving License

The journey from a complete newbie to a licensed chauffeur in Hungary involves numerous unique turning points.

Action 1: Obtain a Medical Certificate

The extremely first document required is a medical certificate of physical fitness.

1. Visit a family doctor (GP) or a designated occupational health medical professional.
2. The physician will conduct basic tests (vision, hearing, basic health history, and high blood pressure).
3. Those who use glasses or contact lenses must bring them along; the resulting license will note the requirement for restorative lenses.
4. When passed, the medical professional problems an official medical certificate (Orvosi Alkalmassági Vélemény).

Step 2: Complete the First-Aid Course

In Hungary, finishing a certified first-aid course and passing its test is mandatory before obtaining a full driving license.

- The Hungarian Red Cross (Magyar Vöröskereszt) arranges these courses.

- Many driving schools (autósiskola) package this course into their packages.
- The test includes a multiple-choice survey and a practical presentation of CPR and bandaging strategies. (Medical professionals, nurses, and those with particular medical degrees might be exempt from this action).

Action 3: Enroll in a Driving School (Autósiskola)

Picking the best driving school is crucial, particularly for non-Hungarian speakers. Numerous schools in Budapest and major cities provide courses and textbooks completely in English.

The training is divided into 2 main phases:

1. Theoretical Training (Kresz):
    - Typically includes a minimum of 28 hours of classes (or a comparable online self-study website).
    - Covers Hungarian traffic rules, roadway indications, and guidelines.
2. Practical Training (Vezetés):
    - Can just start after passing the theory test.
    - Needs a minimum of 29 driving hours plus 1 practical exam hour (totaling 30 hours), covering a compulsory range of at least 580 kilometers.

Step 4: Pass the Theory Exam (KRESZ Vizsga)

Once the theoretical classes are completed, trainees must take the official computer-based theory exam at a designated federal government screening center.

- Format: 55 multiple-choice concerns.
- Time limit: 30 minutes.
- Scoring: The exam runs out 75 points (some questions deserve 3 points, others 1 or 2). A minimum of 65 points is required to pass.
- Language: Available in Hungarian, English, and German at the majority of urbane centers.

Step 5: Complete Practical Lessons and the Road Exam

After passing the KRESZ test, trainees are designated a driving instructor (oktató) to start practical lessons behind the wheel.

- Students find out standard vehicle control, maneuvering, city driving, and rural/highway driving.
- When the instructor concurs that the trainee is ready-- and the minimum hour/kilometer requirements are fulfilled-- the practical road test (forgalmi vizsga) is set up.
- The roadway exam lasts approximately 50 minutes and occurs on public roads with a main inspector being in the back seat and the instructor in the front traveler seat.

Summary of Costs and Timeframes

The time and financial investment needed to obtain a Hungarian Express Zkártya driving license can vary based upon private learning rate and school costs.

Converting a Foreign License vs. Getting a New One

For expats who already hold a driving license from their home country, the process may vary considerably based upon nationality:

- EU/EEA License Holders: Generally, an EU/EEA license stands in Hungary till its expiration date. Holders can pick to transform it to a Hungarian license voluntarily without taking tests, supplied they are habitual citizens.
- Non-EU/EEA License Holders: Third-country licenses are generally valid for just one year after developing residency in Hungary. To continue driving lawfully beyond that duration, chauffeurs should normally go through the conversion process, which typically requires passing the Hungarian KRESZ (theory) exam and a practical driving test, though some nations have bilateral contracts that waive these requirements.

Necessary Documents Checklist

When checking out federal government workplaces (Kormányablak) for administrative jobs related to the license, always guarantee you carry the following:

- Valid Passport or National ID card.
- Hungarian Address Card (Lakcímkártya).
- Home Permit (Tartózkodási Engedély) if applicable.
- Medical Certificate of Fitness.
- First-Aid Certificate.
- Certificate of completed primary education (frequently needed by driving schools to show compliance with Hungarian instructional prerequisites-- usually an 8-grade school certificate or greater, equated if required).
- Proof of passing the theory and practical evaluations.

Last Thoughts
