

Five Star Google Reviews and the Doan Law Firm Midland Approach Clear explanations come first. That's the lesson running through the Google reviews for The Doan Law Firm's Midland office, which holds a 5.0 rating built entirely on five-star reviews. Read them as a group and they sketch out a process more than a sales pitch: what happens after the first phone call, how medical care gets arranged and how clients are kept informed while a claim moves forward. The first step, based on the reviews, is understanding. People describe staff Click here to find out more who took time to explain Texas law and lay out their options without jargon. That covers a lot of ground after a crash. Texas is an at-fault state. Fault can be shared, and under the state's proportionate responsibility rules your recovery shrinks by your share of the blame and disappears if you're found more than 50 percent at fault. Most injury claims must be filed within two years. Hearing all of that clearly at the start helps a client make decisions with open eyes. The second step is care. A recurring theme in the reviews is how quickly the firm helped clients get medical treatment after a car accident, sometimes within a week. The Doan Law Firm connects clients with trusted medical and economic professionals, which matters when you're sore, unsure where to go and trying to get through a follow-up near Midland Memorial Hospital while an adjuster keeps calling. Prompt treatment also documents injuries, and that documentation often carries weight later on.

Clients describe a firm that told them where things stood and fought hard for them, with some saying their case wrapped up in under a year. Behind that is a process the firm describes plainly. It investigates beyond the police report, gathers evidence of fault, calculates both economic and non-economic losses, handles the insurance companies and prepares for trial if the other side won't be reasonable. The firm has been doing this work since 2000, and its founder, Jimmy Doan, was named in February 2026 to the Top 25 Motor Vehicle Trial Lawyers by The National Trial Lawyers.
